

HKCEE English Literature Intensive Course

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to inform you that we will be introducing a HKCEE 'English Literature' Intensive Course to ensure our students are thoroughly supported in their preparation for the HKCEE examinations. There has previously been no similar course on the market, and considering the 2010 HKCEE examination will be the concluding year of the JUPAS Early Admissions Scheme (EAS) the coming examinations are expected to be especially competitive. With this in mind, the course has been structured to equip our students with the necessary skills and confidence to excel.

Furthermore, the course has been devised to accommodate the changes introduced to the Hong Kong Education system concerning the three-year senior secondary education system to be implemented at Secondary Four in September 2009.

The course is targeted at current Form 5 students and is conducted in a small group setting. Students will be guided in critically analyzing novels, short stories and poetry, with a focus on essay writing skills. Professional guidance will be overseen by our experienced instructor, and students' performance will be objectively marked and assessed according to the HKEA marking scheme.

Both new and existing FirstClass Academy students are welcome to attend. For more information or general inquiries, please email help@firstclass.com.hk and state the Subject as "HKCEE English Literature Course".

Best Regards,

Jamie Ku, Instructor
